

RYE DRIFTWOOD GARDEN CLUB

Rye Driftwood Garden Club's October Speaker Explores the Role of Architecture in Garden Design

Come learn about the landscape design elements that will complement your home's architectural style. Rye Driftwood Garden Club's presents award-winning landscape designer Johanna Kuss, who will speak on how the basic principles of art and architectural design apply to the landscape in her talk "Art to Architecture". The program starts at 10 am, Tuesday, October 15, 2019 at the Rye Congregational Church, 580 Washington Road, Rye NH.

Ms. Kuss will explore how artistic and architectural principles of form, function, scale and proportion need to be carefully considered when designing a landscape, and how they can be used to create a living masterpiece. She believes that a landscape is like a symphony with the individual pieces and elements working in harmony to create a beautiful and lasting masterpiece.

Ms. Kuss is the owner of Johanna F. Kuss Landscape Designs in Concord, NH. She has over 30 years of experience with special expertise in perennial, country and English garden design. She focuses on design that is artistic in nature, functionally correct and complements the natural ecosystem. Her landscape design work has been recognized by the Landscape Contractors Association, Federated Garden Clubs of America, and numerous organizations. She has published numerous articles about design in local, regional, and landscape magazines and has recently introduced a new plant species to New Hampshire

The public is invited to attend this presentation. Non-club members are welcome for a suggested donation of $5. Before the presentation, the Club has an enjoyable coffee half hour at 9:30 which is a great opportunity to get to know the RDGC members.
