

RYE DRIFTWOOD GARDEN CLUB

“Getting Dirty in the Garden”

Rye Driftwood Garden Club presents Vince Cirasole who will be explaining how to be a better gardener in his presentation, “Getting Dirty in the Garden.” Cirasole will offer a wealth of practical tips on how to create a new garden, soil preparation, seed starting, planting and cultural techniques such as watering, pest and weed control during the growing season. He will also discuss such topics as how plants and soil interact, composting and crop rotation. The program starts at 10 am, Tuesday, May 19, 2020 at the Rye Congregational Church, 580 Washington Road, Rye NH.

Now residing in Rochester, NH, Cirasole taught physical education and organic gardening in New York before relocating to the Granite State. He is a Master Gardener, experienced teacher, commercial vegetable grower, organic growing enthusiast, and experienced gardening teacher. In addition, Cirasole has recently written a book, “How to Grow a Vegetable Garden that Cannot Fail.”

The public is invited to attend this presentation. Non-club members are welcome for a suggested donation of $5. Before the presentation, the Club has an enjoyable coffee half hour at 9:30 which is a great opportunity to get to know the RDGC members. For more information, visit the RDGC website at: www.ryehgardenclub.org.